

CECO BUILDING SYSTEMS

OFFICE BUILDINGS

Which attributes suit your business needs?

Attractive – to showcase your business.

Efficient – budget friendly and on time.

Designed to Perform – from IAS certified designers and craftsmen.

Confidence – in Ceco, a 65-year-old industry leader and its local Ceco Builders, The Construction Professionals.

OFFICE

Our Construction Professionals team is the sensible way to construct low-rise office buildings. We combine a Ceco metal building system with local materials such as glass, masonry or EIFS to create the aesthetics you demand. Plus, the speed and economy of the systems approach, along with the discipline it imposes, help to insure your project will be completed on time and on budget.

Ceco Buildings are marketed through a network of 700 Ceco Builders, local contractors that have the training and experience to construct Ceco Buildings that meet your exact requirements on time and within budget.
